ALC Players of the Week

Defensive: Stephanie Ellis, Penn State

Jr., Bryn Mawr, Pa. (Radnor)

Ellis anchored the Penn State defense in its upset of No. 13 Ohio State. She helped stymie an offense that had scored 20 or more goals four times this season, recording nine saves against 22 shots while limiting the Buckeyes to nine goals, including just one in the first half. Ellis also led the team in ground balls with four and in caused turnovers with two.

Offensive: Sarah Downing, Vanderbilt

Jr., Morristown, N.J. (Hotchkiss School)

Downing helped the Commodores upset Notre Dame, scoring six goals on eight shots. She added one assist, three ground balls, two draw controls and one caused turnover. She was key in the transition and was involved with moving the ball down field 90% of the time.

Rookie: Theresa Zichelli, Penn State

Fr., Severna Park, Md. (Severna Park)

Zichelli fueled the Penn State attack in its 13-9 upset of No. 13 Ohio State in a pivotal ALC showdown on Sunday. She netted a team best and career high three goals, including a key score late in the second half that halted a Buckeye comeback attempt. In just her second start as a Nittany Lion, Zichelli also added one draw control and one caused turnover.
